WEEKS wants the Indiana post office. It has been closed for weeks, but now it may be opened for weeks.

GREAT is the board of equalization. What they do not know about the valuation of realty in Ohio county, has been torn out of the book.

For a little "tickling sensation" at the heart where you are unable to scratch, we recommend the "skate cure." We tried it; it's superb.

GERMAN gunners have not succeeded in silencing Venezuelan guns, but they have, no doubt, proven themselves good marksmen by knocking out German tank in South America.

The Hartford court house will soon have a new twelve-hundred-pound bell to toll forth prosperity for the town and county.—Herald.

What? How is that? Do you mean to turn your back on time-honored Democratic traditions by admitting that the country is prosperous?

The foreign commerce of the United States has grown to such magnitude, that the present Congress will, in all probability, create the new portfolio of Secretary of Commerce. And this, too, under a Republican Protective Tariff Administration!

HON. GEORGE FRED WILLIAMS, a Massachusetts Democrat, who was side-tracked by his party last fall, has dropped out in a new place. He is now organizing a new party by the name of "People's Party." This appellation, to George Fred, is a misnomer.

STRANGERS in our town, who are fortunate enough to hear the tin-tinulation of the court house bell, go away with the entrancing melody, which wells from its mottled golden throat, glowing in their hearts long after it is heard no more. But none of them are quite sure whether it is a reproduction of the Whittington or the Westminster chimes.

When will Carolinians become weary of the bulldozing ruffianism of the Tillmans? The assassination of editor Gonzales, for cold, calculating, savage brutality, is almost without a parallel. But we are so accustomed to murder that the last agonizing moan of the victim of the ruffian's pistol hardly receives an echo of sympathy from the Blue Grass Commonwealth.

RUDYARD KIPLING, the rag-time poet, has again obtained newspaper notoriety. It came not, however, from his high-born kismen on the tale of Britain, in a gentle swell of adulation; but from his haughty cousins "across the ditch," who have scored him severely for his utterances on the Anglo-German alliance and the Monroe Doctrine. His late utterances show him in a new role—that of a keen political discernor, rather than a noted author.

The Hartford Herald obligingly gives us a grammar lecture this week. It was awfully sweet of the dear old girl to take such a friendly interest in us. We know our grammar is not of the best, but in the paragraph quoted, will the kindly favor us with some rule of grammar that proves it ungrammatical? Of course the sweet old thing knew we meant "advance notices," notwithstanding her disclaimer. Desirable as it is to use good grammar, there is another element more material to the making of a good newspaper than scrupulous conformity to the rules of grammar. In fact, we have it upon good authority that there are some men who learned grammar at Harvard and Yale, and learned it well, who are glad to earn a dollar a day tamping ballast under railroad ties. But still we ain't ain't grammar as a general proposition.

We were away from home the first of the week and Mr. James DeWeese did a part of the editorial writing for this issue. This explanation is material to our escape from self-confessed guilt to rising at the still hour of four in the morning and hieing away to the ice pond, as well as from that of reverberating about our first, but long-forgotten, sweetheart.

THE Kentucky Press Association had an elegant six o'clock dinner served in six courses at Seelbach's Hotel in Louisville Tuesday evening. The Association had a very interesting business session in the afternoon preceding the dinner, which should have been, perhaps, mentioned first, but such dinners fall so seldom to the lot of the country editor that he may be pardoned for considering them the chief attraction upon any occasion.

To our subscribers who are several years in arrears, it will certainly be a satisfaction to know that we had one square meal.

THE warm weather of the last few days makes us feel again as we did in the long ago, when we stole out in the gloaming and strolled over the familiar moorland, arm in arm with our first love, to listen to the sweet music of the hullofrog cooing to the object of his affections near him; to watch the violet-eyed peacock and listen, with rapture, to the familiar notes of the old tomat as he trills a few hars of something soft and low to his mate on the wood-shed. Although life more real has come to us now, yet we cannot forget those days, and nothing affords so much real pleasure as to live them over again in reverie.

THE many friends of Mr. S. A. Anderson will regret to see in this issue of THE REPUBLICAN his card, withdrawing from the race for Circuit Clerk. Mr. Anderson has made a record as an official of which the party that elected him is proud, and on which it would have given him another nomination had he asked it. As a factor in the Republican organization of Ohio county, Mr. Anderson is highly esteemed by his party associates, and it is not improbable that he will be called upon again by his party to render public service. Mr. Anderson, at the end of his term as Circuit Court Clerk, will take up the practice of law for which, he has been industriously preparing himself for several years.

THE taxpayers of Ohio county are getting much wrought up over the frequency of homicides in the county. Outside of the immediate family of the deceased, the people, in general, care little or nothing about these homicides as such—being so well accustomed to them—but the expense of three or four hundred dollars entailed by the Commonwealth, in the ineffective prosecution of the murderer, is repeated with such frequency that the burden on the taxpayers is becoming so onerous that they are well nigh to the point of open rebellion. In fact, this needless waste of public money can go on further only at the peril of civil government. Now if our egotism may be pardoned, we believe we have a remedy to offer which will allay the pending outburst of public wrath; or rather, we have two remedies, either of which would prove effective. Our first and simplest remedy is to repeal all statutes and parts of statutes heretofore existing abridging the right of a citizen to kill his fellowman in whatever place and manner he wills, but if there is an objection to this remedy that it would deprive the lawyers, witnesses and jurors of their ancient and vested rights in fees, per diem, etc., we would suggest that the next General Assembly enact a stringent law requiring every citizen, before he commits the act of homicide, to appear before the Judge of the County Court and make good and sufficient bond to said court that he, his accessories and sympathizers will meet all the necessary expenses incurred by the Commonwealth in its various and variable efforts to establish his plea of necessary or apparent necessary self-defense. We are close to the great common people and know just how they feel about this matter, and if the law-makers don't heed our warning, we'll just try to prepare to meet the crash when it comes, as come it must, for the people are growning mightily under the burden of this needless extravagance of public funds.

CASTORIA.

Smallpox at Fordsville. Mr. Shelby Ford, of Fordsville, got up with a well developed case of smallpox yesterday morning. He is supposed to have contracted the disease in Louisville about ten days ago. The board of health of Fordsville will take every precaution to prevent the spread of the fearful malady.

The awful pangs of rheumatism are quickly relieved by an application of Ramon's Nerve and Bone Oil. Large bottles, with directions. 25c.

The Gentry Stock Company, who came out here from Owensboro and gave the play, "The Virginian," proved a very good one. The attendance was large and the venture very successful. Efforts are being made to procure a minstrel troupe of thirty members for about February the 9th.

Your correspondent has been sick for several days, and not being out at all. I am sorry to be unable to report more from our town this week—its movings, happenings, etc.

CENTRAL GROVE.

The series of meetings at the Baptist church, which were conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. D. Maddox, closed last Thursday night, there having been eighteen conversions and eleven additions to the church. The baptizing will take place next third Sunday at 11 o'clock at Brown's ippie.

Mrs. Kitty Tanner, wife of Mr. J. J. Tanner, died last Saturday after an illness of several weeks. Funeral services were conducted, Sunday, at the residence by Rev. G. J. Bean, at which the remains were laid to rest in the Miller graveyard near Gosheu. Mrs. Tanner was a Christian woman and loved by all who knew her.

Mr. W. F. Landrum, Williams Mines, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. C. L. Loney.

Mr. Howard Faught has bought Mr. R. M. Hobdy's farm.

Miss Middle Park is attending school at Beaver Dam.

JINGO.

Messrs. Beaty & Dalton, Breckenridge county, were in this section last week trying to buy farm land, but returned without buying.

Mr. John Allen, of near Beaver Dam, has moved in with W. E. Baker and will raise a crop with Mr. Baker this season.

Mr. Robert Vance has moved from this place to the farm of Dr. W. D. Likens where he will work the coming season.

Mr. Frank Fleiden, of Sulphur Springs, who has been confined to his bed for several days with a complication of diseases, is improving.

Mr. Robert Davis has just returned from an extended visit to LaRue county where he has been visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Beatrice Murphy, wife of Mr. A. G. Murphy, has been quite sick for some time, but at this writing she is thought to be improving.

FORT NIAGARA, N. Y.

MR. EDITOR.—I see by your letter-heads that the Hartford Publishing Co. is in good hands and a pilot at the wheel with an eagle eye.

When anything really happens in the Ninth Infantry or vicinity of any real interest to your many readers, I shall be pleased to write it all out at my earliest convenience.

Just now we have one of Longfellow's "long and dreary winters," where the ice on lakes and rivers grows ever thicker, thicker, thicker and the snow grows deeper, deeper, covering all the hills and valleys.

Of course the "Ninth" has a few good things in the post, if your readers should be eager for ancient his tory.

In 1898, down in Santiago with Shafter, we marched up the hill, or at least, the Ninth Infantry, with my old regiment—the Twenty-first—and many others good and true, marched up the San Juan Hill, where many came not down again. Then again, over in Luzon, we truly did march with Lawton at Iapote river and other skirmishes.

Again, in the trying campaigns in Lamar the Ninth bore her part.

In the North Northern winter here the outdoor drills are put by and in their place there are Officers Lyceum—study of strategy, topography, etc., by officers of the post, post school for enlisted men needing or desiring instruction; and such calisthenics as are practical indoors or instruction by the Captains in theories or field maneuvers, rifle practice, or signal drill.

We are not really so idle as the many suppose, though we find time for skating and dancing and reading. Company "D" has a library of 2,000 volumes or so.

Some of the men are cutting ice, but your scribe, as usual, is playing pedagog to the post.

I have a bid to a musical in Company "C," so, with good wishes to you and the patient reader, I am,

Yours truly, J. C. B.

A Cough

"I have made a most thorough trial of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and am prepared to say that for all diseases of the lungs it never disappoints."
J. Early Finley, Ironton, O.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral won't cure rheumatism; we never said it would. It won't cure dyspepsia; we never claimed it. But it will cure coughs and colds of all kinds. We first said this sixty years ago; we've been saying it ever since.

Three sizes: 25c, 50c, $1. All druggists. Consult your doctor. If he says take it, then do as he says. If he tells you not to take it, then don't take it. He knows. Leave it with him. We are willing.

Reconvene, Hear Many Complaints and Heed Few of Them.

The Board of Tax Supervisors reconvened, Monday, to hear complaints of taxpayers whose assessments had been raised by that body.

The man with the firm consisting chiefly of gullied hillsides and brown-sedge fields, as well as the owner of bottom lands, which were very wet and crawfishy, as very numerous.

But the members of the board, who are sitting their fifth sit in that capacity, have long since become calloused to these complaints, and they made very few reductions for the benefit of the owners of the above described lands.

It is extremely interesting to note the difference in description the land owner, who has been raised, gives to the Board of Supervisors and to a prospective purchaser.

The board completed its work and adjourned yesterday.

Mr. T. H. Carson, of Livermore, who is visiting friends in the county gave us a very pleasant call yesterday.

To My Republican Friends.

It had been my intention to make the race for re-election for the office of Clerk of the Ohio Circuit Court, and I had so announced to some of my friends, but after due deliberation and thinking it best for me and, perhaps best for the Republican party, for me not to enter the contest for the nomination, I take this method of informing my friends that I will not be a candidate for re-election.

I have several reasons for not entering the contest, and the most potent reason is, that I feel that after the sacrifice of time and money on my part, fighting a Democratic contest after I was elected, that I should have had the nomination from my party without opposition, and thereby I could have made a much stronger race, however, there are some worthy gentlemen who evidently think they should have the nomination, hence they are asking for the support of the Republicans for the office.

The office does not belong to me, and is open for some good man, and I want to see the nominee, whom he may be, win in the final election. I am proud to be the first Republican Circuit Clerk Ohio county has ever had, and I trust that my efforts since I have been in office, have given satisfaction to the people, and that in retiring from office I will have the good will of all the people.

As soon as my time expires, it is now my intention to enter into the practice of the law, for which I have been studying for the past four years.

Thanking one and all of my friends for their loyal support and most hearty endorsement for re-election, I am,

Yours truly,
SAM A. ANDERSON.

The assassination of Filitor Garzales is a crime which should, the Montgomery Advertiser rightly states, arouse the press and public opinion of the entire country. If an editor is to be assassinated with impunity for something printed in his paper, then the boasted freedom of the press is the baseless dream of purely idealistic conditions. The assassin in this case resorted to the tactics of the thug and the coward. "There has never been," says the Advertiser, "a shadow of evidence that Mr. Garzales had any reason whatever to apprehend an attack. He was unarmed and helpless."—Louisville Herald.

Aching Joints

In the fingers, toes, arms, and other parts of the body, are joints that are inflamed and swollen by rheumatism—that acid condition of the blood which affects the muscles also.

Sufferers dread to move, especially after sitting or lying long, and their condition is commonly worse in wet weather.

It has been a long time since we have seen without Hood's Sarsaparilla. My father thinks he could not do without it. He has been troubled with rheumatism since he was a boy, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine he can take that will enable him to take his place in the field. Mrs. Ann Dwy, Sidney, Iowa.

IN THE RIVER.

A Mob of Colored Men Chased a Livermore Rapist, John Jones.

On last Saturday morning, John Jones, a negro, who had committed an assault on Ida Talbot, a negress, near Livermore, was run into Green river by a mob of negroes and drowned. Jones had been arrested and was in the custody of Marshal Brown, of Livermore, who had him in hiding.

His whereabouts became known to the mob and they immediately made a demand for the prisoner.

Brown turned the negro loose and told him to run for his life. He did this and was immediately fired upon by the mob. He was wounded, but succeeded in getting to the river and disappeared. The river on both sides was guarded during the remainder of the night, but nothing more was ever seen of Jones. His hat was found pierced by several bullets and stained with blood. That he met death by drowning, after being wounded, there is absolutely no doubt, but a careful dragging of the river failed to locate his body.

No white men took any part in the mob. Jones was a deck hand on the boat, Park City.

WEEDS

Consumption is a human weed flourishing best in weak lungs. Like other weeds it's easily destroyed while young; when old, sometimes impossible.

Strengthen the lungs as you would weak land and the weeds will disappear.

The best lung fertilizer is Scott's Emulsion. Salt pork is good too, but it is very hard to digest.

The time to treat consumption is when you begin trying to hide it from yourself. Others see it, you won't.

Don't wait until you can't deceive yourself any longer. Begin with the first thought to take Scott's Emulsion. If it isn't really consumption so much the better; you will soon forget it and be better for the treatment. If it is consumption you can't expect to be cured at once, but if you will begin in time and will be rigidly regular in your treatment you will win.

Scott's Emulsion, fresh air, rest all you can, eat all you can, that's the treatment and that's the best treatment.

We will send you a little of the Emulsion free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

KILLING AT BALZETOWN.

H. O. Daugherty Fires Four Deadly Shots Into the Body of Alva Willoughby.

KILLING RESULTS FROM OLD FEUD

Henry Daugherty shot and killed Alva Willoughby at Balzertown late Saturday afternoon. The trouble seems to grow out of an old grudge of some months standing, the origin of which we could not learn.

The parties had not been on good terms for some time, and while on his way home from work Saturday evening, Daugherty stopped at Balze & Co's store. Willoughby was in the store at the time, and, according to such information as we have been able to gather, without a word of warning, hurled a heavy weight at Daugherty, which knocked him down and cut a fearful gash in his neck.

Willoughby, it is reported, then drew a knife and started to assault Daugherty again, when the latter drew a pistol and shot his assailant four times in rapid succession, killing him instantly.

It was not until Sunday morning that steps were taken to arrest Daugherty, who was concealing himself near his home. Sheriff Keown sent two of his deputies, Clarence Keown and R. L. Boyd, Sunday evening, to the scene of the killing. The deputies were unable to locate Daugherty Sunday, but some of Daugherty's friends agreed to have him at a given point Monday, which they did. When the deputies arrived at the place agreed upon Monday, they found Daugherty there, who shook hands with them and expressed his willingness to be taken into their custody. The deputies, with their prisoner, arrived here about dark, when the prisoner was lodged in jail. Daugherty will have an examining trial before Judge Miller Monday.
